DRUNKS WERE LUCKY TESTERDAY. They Laid It All to Politice and the Parade,

William E. Coulter, a car driver of 2,141 Lexington avenue, registered on Oct. 9 in the Seventiath election district of the Twenty-third Assembly district as a resident of 128th street, and on Oct. 26 he registered in the adjoining Twenty-ninth election district as a resident of Lexington avenue. While the detectives were looking for him he heard of it, and got his name taken off in the Seventieth district. He was anxious to explain the matter to Justice Welde

"You seem like too intelligent a man." said Justice Welde. "to make such a mistake unsuitingly. I hold you in $2,000 ball to answer."

"James Healey." said Justice Welde to a prisoner in the Harlem Court yesterday morning. You are accused of being drunk and making a disturbance at 2 o'clook in the morning. What have you to say for yourself?"

Healey looked rocky, but he was alive to the situation. Justice Welde is a Tampany leader.

"Sure," he said. "your Honor, I went out to register last night, and afterward I was making a lew romarks in Javor of electing Hugh J. Grant for Mayor. Then I was locked up."

He was discharged. So were a number of other respectable-looking prisoners who plended that they had got wer parading in honor of Cleveland, and had taken something to stave off pneumonia.

Cleveland, and had taken something to stave off pneumonia.

Two men were brought in for flechting in the street as well as being drunk. "It was only a little political argument," said one of them, and I was right. I was arguing for Grant and he was arguing for the other fellow, when the policeman broke up the argument.

"Who do you mean by the other fellow?" asked the Justice.

"DELURY SAYS"

The Box Overcoat is in great demand with the fine West End tailors of London. This coat is cut after the style of a Driving Cape, that is, to hang perfectly straight and with all the seams strapped one-half inch wide. The materials most in favour for this garment are Carr's Treble-Milled Meltons, Devonshire Kerseys, Patent Beavers, &c. These goods come in a large variety of new colourings, the most stylish of which is the Bottle-Green. In fact this colour is at present all the rage on the other side. We have imported a large and handsome stock of Overcoatings of every de scription, and owing to our increased facilities for manufacturing in our new buildings we are producing all our garments 15 to 20 per cent, lower than our former moderate charges.

No deposit required on orders placed with this house from reliable persons. Try a pair of our Scotch Stripes and Check Trousers for $6.50 and $7.50. They are very suitable for stylish and rough-and-ready wear.
